Remarks

Tucked within the private, gated cul-de-sac enclave of Anchorage Place in The Lake Club, this six-month-old Stock Custom Home is a true architectural masterpiece. Set on two-thirds of an acre with sweeping views of lush natural surroundings, this 5,997 sq. ft., four-bedroom, five-and-a-half bath estate blends modern sophistication with serene, Florida resort-style living. Professionally decorated and fully furnished with new furnishings ($350K furniture package and $100K in recent upgrades), this stunning home embodies "organic modern" elegance—defined by earthy hues, layered textures, and refined finishes. The thoughtful design is evident from the moment you arrive, beginning with a smart glass iron front door with switchable privacy feature, intricate inlay flooring, and 15-foot tongue-and-groove rift-cut white oak ceilings that match the wood flooring throughout. The light-filled great room is anchored by a curved stucco wall with a 72" three-sided gas fireplace and features 10-foot pocketing sliding glass doors topped with transom windows, seamlessly connecting the indoors to the outdoors. A concealed TV, tucked behind remote-controlled artwork, adds to the room's sleek, sophisticated design. Across the room, a custom curved kitchen hood echoes the
